The sixth edition of the department's annual magazine "Phoenix", which was based on the theme GLOBAL BIOLOGY was released on 13th March 2018 by Dr. Rup Lal and Dr. Yogendra Singh, from the Department of Zoology, University of Delhi. The magazine included various engrossing articles about genetics, wildlife, latest scientific discoveries and other disciplines along with the highlights of our department from the academic year 2017-2018.

Dr. Rup Lal, who was also a former professor at Sri Venkateswara College gave a lecture on "Microbiome and its implications." His presentation was extremely informative with a healthy dose of humor. This was followed by another comprehensive lecture on "Survival Strategies of Mycobacterium tuberculosis" which was delivered by Dr. Yogendra Singh.

Lastly, Evolvere also organised a multi-tiered fun game, "Survival of the fittest" which challenged the participants' presence of mind, vigour and the prowess to survive.
