BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY

TOPIC/SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	Sansiddhi, the workshop of Vimarsh - The Hindi Debating Society of Sri Venkateswara College under the guidance of former members of the society.
OBJECTIVES	The main objective of this workshop organized by the Hindi debating society, Sri Venkateswara College, was to guide the members of the society related to the speech, debate and oratory skills under the guidance of our alumnis. This workshop was organized to know the small nuances of the debate and to develop the interpersonal skills of the members and other participants. Along with this, the objective was to boost up the confidence of the members with the inspirational words by experienced alumnis so that in the upcoming debate competitions, all the members participate with full confidence, win prizes and flourish the name of their college and society.
METHODOLOGY	The event witnessed participation from members of Vimarsh & other students of the college. Former members started the workshop with some energy exercises. One by one each alumni addressed the participants on the topics related to public speaking and debating skills. How to approach any topic in debate was also discussed in the house. The alumnis were reported the current achievements and working of the society. In the end every participant asked their part of doubts and queries related to public speaking and career. The workshop ended on a high note by Plantation of a sapling in college premises.

REPORT

VIMARSH- THE HINDI DEBATING SOCIETY organized a workshop on 1st of October 2022 in room 15 under the guidance of Convenor CS Rawat sir and former members associated with Vimarsh.

Society members along with former members of Vimarsh, planted a sapling in the college premises.ca

The workshop started at 09:00 am, it started with greetings and introduction of the members and participants to our alumnis, then it proceeded towards an interesting and engaging session where senior alumnis guided and conveyed information regarding crucial concepts, like how to effectively modulate one's voice, set-up a particular tone, enhanced frequency of communication using body language and importance of having strong mental interface while debating. Few energy exercises and another round of feedback (keeping in mind previous feedback and tips) was organised. Then the training session took place where each alumni shared some resources and their own experience in which they have expertise.

Shri Himmat Singh Negi, Professional Theatre Director & Founding Vice - President Vimarsh showered his knowledge and experiences to make the participants and other members of the society comfortable in the field of debate culture.

Shri Pankaj Daskanti, Educationist & Alumni Vimarsh explaining in detail about the nuances of the debate and the ways to avoid mistakes made in them.

One by one each alumni addressed the participants on the topics related to public speaking and debating skills. How to approach any topic in debate was also discussed in the house. The alumnis were reported the current achievements and working of the society. In last every participant asked their part of doubts and queries related to public speaking and carrier. To conclude the event on a positive note, a unique initiative of planting a sapling 'Vimarsh - Taru' in the college premises was taken to signify gradual and blooming growth of Vimarsh, The Hindi Debating Society of Sri Venkateswara College.

Plantation of the sapling “Vimarsh Taru” in the college premises.
