REPORT

The B.A. Programme Committee conducted a workshop on Great Depression on 19th Nov. 2022. At 9:30 a.m. in Seminar Hall, Durgabai Deshmukh block with active student participation. The event commenced with the welcome speech by Dr. S Krishnakumar, Convenor and Associate Professor of Dept. Of Economics, Sri Venkateswara College, University of Delhi. The programme was hosted by Saicharan and Muskan, students of B.A. Programme 'Semester 3rd'.

The meeting starts with a Western music performance based on "Brother can you spare a Dime?" performed by Arjun Pratap Chauhan of the English Music Society.

The keynote lecture on the occasion on "Depression and the Institution Changes under Capitalism" was delivered by Dr. Saumyajit Bhattacharya (Associate Professor, Dept. of Economics, Kirorimal College, University of Delhi). He drew attention to the massive institutional changes which happened to the organization of the economy in the aftermath of the Great Depression. He shed light on the programmes like New Deal among others.

The workshop organized has various components: Music of the period of The Great Depression, followed by brief sketches of biographies of John Maynard Keynes and the Great Depression. In the play based on the parts of the novel Grapes of Wrath, the students participated in a big way. Here is the link:

A set of students had done an exhibition of the photographs and cartoons from the Franklin D Roosevelt Archives available online. Another set presented Joseph Steinbeck's play "Grapes of Wrath". The travails faced by the migrant family from the Dust Bowl and the storyline around the same were captured by the set of actors who were directed by Mridul Jamwal. Her efforts in co-ordinating this play through direction are specially acknowledged. The sense of deprivation felt by the family and their internal tensions, the grandmother's death on the way, the troubles on the route for the expectant mother, the sense of shame of being in an alien land, the readiness to fight for the rights by confronting the authorities, the new minimum wage rules which came into being and different opinions about the same from various corners and the frustrations of feeling bluffed in the new place. The novel captures the stirrings of change of the twenties.

Along with that, the same was the photography, sketches, and caricature presentation. Further, there was also an interactive session between the students and the guest. Finally, the workshop winded up with a vote of thanks.
