

5th September- International day of democracy

On 15th September 2018, which is marked as international day of democracy, chief electoral officer organised a symposium on "challenges to Indian electoral democracy" at the India habitat center, New Delhi.

SVEEP campus ambassadors of Sri Venkateswara College were invited for the same. The event discussed the state of electoral democracy in the country, it's advantages and drawbacks.

Various renowned dignitaries took part in the conference and elaborated on the state of democracy, secularism, growth of the country in socially, politically and economically and their effect on electoral proceedings.

It was a fruitful and learning experience for the ambassadors of SVEEP.
