REPORT

The festival of lights, Diwali, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and energy at Sri Venkateswara College on 14th October 2022. NSS organised a grand Diwali mela under Ahaan, its annual Diwali Celebration. A string of activities was organised for the college students, including an enthralling nukkad natak performance, an Intersociety treasure hunt, and a Garba evening. Food stalls were set up, along with small entrepreneurs and self-help groups setting up booths to sell their unique products. Students participated in all activities with high vigour and zeal, and the crowd dancing together was a sight to behold. The entire team of NSS put their sweat and blood into making this event successful. Thus, a long week of hassle and work was met with a justified ending of celebrations with lights, music, food and joy.

"Give light, and the darkness will disappear of itself." - Desiderius Erasmus

Diwali demonstrates the spirit of reunion and joy! It celebrates the light within one's self that has been passed upon by the lamp, lit with an eternal flame of hope. Thus, Diwali marks the bliss of being together. ✨

The Festival of lights is approaching soon and so is The Diwali Mela! Planned under Ahaan- Noor-e-Zindagi by NSS SVC on the 14th of October from 12:00 PM to 05:00 PM, it surely is the place to be!

Gather around! Diwali Mela'22 is almost here and we cordially invite you (in your traditionals) to be a part of this little celebration and make it huge with your love and support! ❤️

Only for the students of Sri venkateswara college
