SRI VENKATESWARA COLLEGE

Sri Venkateswara College is a constituent college of the University of Delhi established in 1961 in New Delhi, India. It is managed by Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams & UGC and awards degrees under the purview of the University of Delhi.

Sri Venkateswara College offers a platform for students from diverse backgrounds to excel in academics, research, cultural as well as social activities and sports. We take pride in the fact that “Venkyites” in today’s world are known for their penchant to excel in all walks of life.

Sri Venkateswara College envisions “Self-realization through knowledge” emphasizing holistic, inclusive and futuristic education in tune with the college motto "Satyaana Pramadittavyam" (Do not deviate from Truth)

SOCIETY FOR LIBRARY PROFESSIONALS (SLP), NEW DELHI

The SLP established in 2008 to achieve a high standard of Librarianship in India through the development of libraries and information centers to promote LIS professions in India. The role of this Society is to achieve high standard in the field of librarianship. This will be achieved by the development of strong linkages among libraries and information centers across the globe; advancement of library and information science profession in India by fostering collaboration with national and international agencies; and also, by promoting educational exchange programmes with global partners. ## SPECIAL LIBRARIES ASSOCIATION (SLA), USA-ASIAN CHAPTER

The Special Libraries Association (SLA) with its headquarter at USA, is a non-profit global organization for information professionals and their strategic partners. SLA founded in 1909 in New York and is now the international association representing the interests of thousands of information professionals in over eighty countries worldwide. The Asian chapter of SLA is one of the fastest growing chapters with members from Asian and western countries. It has more than 150 members from India, Indonesia, Laos, Macau, Malaysia, Myanmar, Mongolia, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Thailand, Vietnam, Australia, UK, and USA.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SEMINAR

The primary goal of the seminar is to establish a platform for participants to engage in discussions and idea exchange around the central theme and emerging technologies. Specifically, the objectives include fostering a professional understanding of digital transformation in Academic Libraries and other cutting-edge technologies within the library and information science domain, aimed at enhancing the quality and dissemination of services. These objectives are outlined as follows:

1. Facilitate knowledge sharing among experts in Knowledge Innovation and Knowledge Management.
2. Engage in discussions, debates, and strategy development for managing and reforming information systems and libraries in the web environment.
3. Emphasize the importance of enhancing opportunities for sharing innovative practices and concepts across the profession, both nationally and internationally, and among all types of libraries.
4. Provide insights and discussions on data security and privacy in the digital era, including innovative plans and strategies.
5. Identify and disseminate 'Best Practices' implemented by various information systems and libraries.
6. Enhance expertise and provide a robust platform for educating the next generation of library professionals.
7. Foster interaction with new researchers to encourage collaboration and knowledge exchange.
