Summary

The Equal Opportunity Cell of Sri Venkateswara College organized a valedictory function and farewell ceremony on 18th April 2019 from 10 A.M to 2 P.M. The ceremony began with the floral welcome of Dr. Hemalatha Reddy, former principal of Sri Venkateswara College followed by the lamp lighting ceremony. The volunteers of the cell worshipped the Goddess Saraswati by singing the Saraswati Vandana to express gratitude and for showering her blessings on us. The event was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Kanwar Singh, the convenor of EOC. All the faculty members and the students who volunteered in this session for EOC were present there to show their love towards the seniors and the society.

Then various cultural performances were presented by the volunteers and the core members of the society. PWD students were also given opportunity to showcase their talent in front of everybody, so a group of PWD students performed a group dance and sung few songs. The performances were thoroughly enjoyed by everybody.

Dr. Reddy addressed the gathering with her motivating words. She appreciated how the society has amazingly worked and the hard work of the volunteers and the core members of the society has definitely paid off. She inspired the outgoing students to do well in life and succeed in every aspect of life. She gave an excellent suggestion of maintaining the record of PWD students who have passed out from our college and are doing well in their life. She also suggested conducting the alumni meet to boost the morale of the students currently studying in the college.

The students were also enlightened with the words of Dr. R.P. Singh sir and Kanwar Singh sir who also gave students the blessings to succeed in life.

Next comes the certificate distribution ceremony. The certificates were given to the volunteers and the core members of the society for appreciating their hard work. It boosted the confidence of all the members and inspired them to work more efficiently for the society.

At the end, food coupons were distributed to everybody and the ceremony came to end.
