Activity Report

Exordium, The Civil Services Cell of Sri Venkateswara College recently organized a webinar with IAS OT Divyanshu Singhal. It was an erudite webinar where Singhal briefed the exuberant aspirants of Civil Services. The webinar began with a quick introduction of Mr. Singhal by himself and then he engaged the audience with his mind blowing journey of becoming an IAS. It was followed by the hardship of preparation and how he made a wonderful strategy for himself. The best thing about his delivery of strategy was that he gave a generic plot for every aspirant and asked them to build it on their own. He shared a lot of other important sources to study from which included books, websites, blogs etc. While mentioning the books his major focus was on NCERTs. He believes that there should be limited sources for studying but you should master that. It's better to study ten books ten times than studying a hundred books. The webinar gave a chance to the aspirants to get their doubts cleared one to one. Exordium is looking forward to hosting many such sessions to keep the flame burning in the aspirants.
