1. Event report Attested by Event Coordinator & IQAC Coordinator

Making the campus an inclusive and welcoming space for all genders and identities has always been the foremost goal of the Women's Development Cell, Sri Venkateswara College. With the same spirit in mind, WDC SVC organised our flagship event, 'Pride'22', on 10th November 2022 in the college premises. Attended by students of the college as well as various WDCs and queer collectives across Delhi, the event was filled with fun activities, cultural performances by multiple artists, stalls by a bunch of small businesses from our very own college students, and societies of SVC.

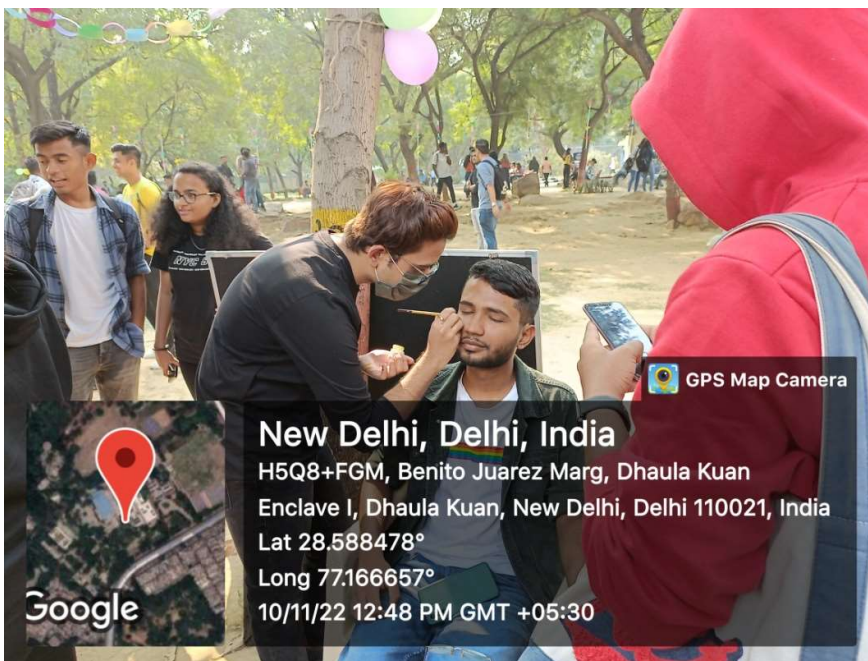

Students checking out the stalls

The event began with an exhilarating treasure hunt that sent the participants on a wild chase across the campus to find clues. In collaboration with Conquistadors, the Quiz Society, and Effulgence, the Photography Society, WDC also organised a quiz and photography competition respectively on the themes of diversity and inclusiveness. At 1.30 pm, Prof. C. Sheela Reddy addressed the gathering and formally inaugurated the entire event. Her address was followed by Dr. Rina Ramdev, the Convenor of WDC SVC speaking on the need for an all-inclusive campus and WDC's efforts to achieve the same.

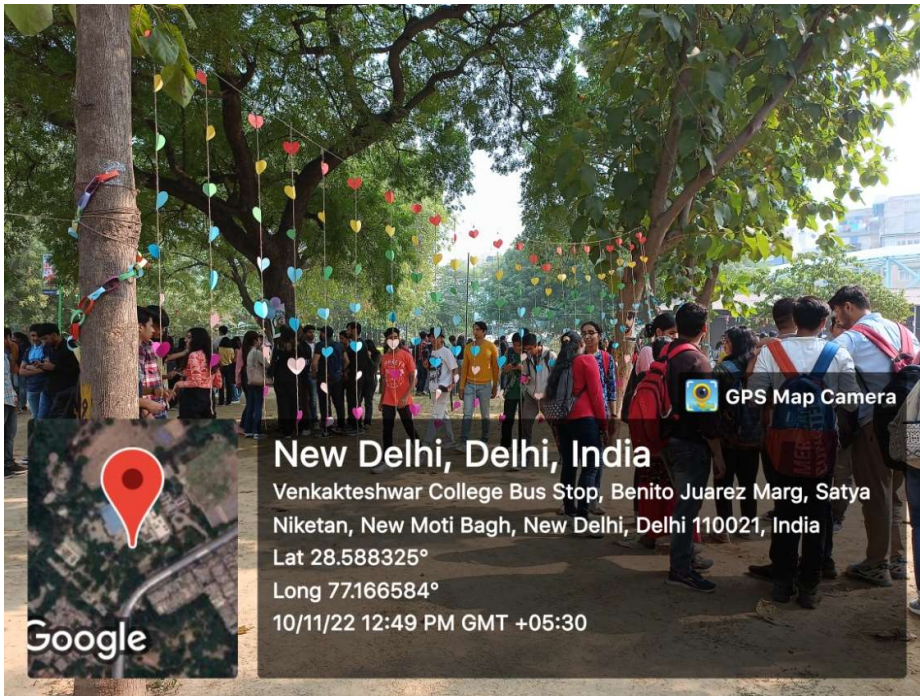

Art exhibition set up by Leongi, the art society of Sri Venkateswara College

Leongi, the Art Society of the college put up an art exhibition on the celebration of Pride as well as a face painting stall for the attendees. The VenQueer community performed a spectacular flashmob, garnering praises from the entire audience and truly setting the mood for the day.

After several scintillating dance, music and poetry performances, the event came to a beautiful end with the Pride March in the campus.
