He also spoke about how the Stock Market is a powerful source of investment for everyone. He managed to explain the different personal financing levels and the risk-reward relationship at each level. He broke the long term myth of gold being used as an investment and brought to us its real significance as 'Hedge against inflation' or means of 'Insurance against Investment'. The session was highly interactive in nature throughout and the last 15 minutes were kept for direct Q&A. The chat box was flooded with questions and Mr. Goela went on to answer all of the queries. Overall, the workshop was extremely enlightening and helpful to everyone who attended it.

PERSONAL FINANCE

26/11/20

ASCEND, The Entrepreneurship Cell of Sri Venkateswara College, Delhi University, organised a workshop on the topic 'Stock market and Personal Finance' on 26th November 2020 with Mr. Harsh Goela, a Stock Market Investor, CEO of Goela School of Finance and a TEDX Speaker with more than a million views. The workshop received an overwhelming response with over 250 attendees from Delhi University, Symbiosis, NMIMS, Amity and other institutes. Mr. Goela commenced the session by explaining how different types of economies deal with their cash and then continued to talk about the current economic scenario amidst Covid-19. He cited real life examples of food inflation and emphasised on the actions taken by the government to uplift the GDP. Mr. Goela then explained the reasons behind reducing the interest rates during the pandemic and how that will benefit the economic status of India.
