A VISIT TO SANJAYA CAMP

The team visited a rural area, called 'Sanjaya Camp' with the purpose of understanding the area's dynamics and conducting a motivational session for the residents. The visit included a full-fledged community session with about 30 listeners and one-on-one interaction with ladies, young adults as well as school-going children. The session focused on both motivating residents to take initiative within and outside the area, as well as informing them about various financial saving options available to them on a relatively small scale.
