Report

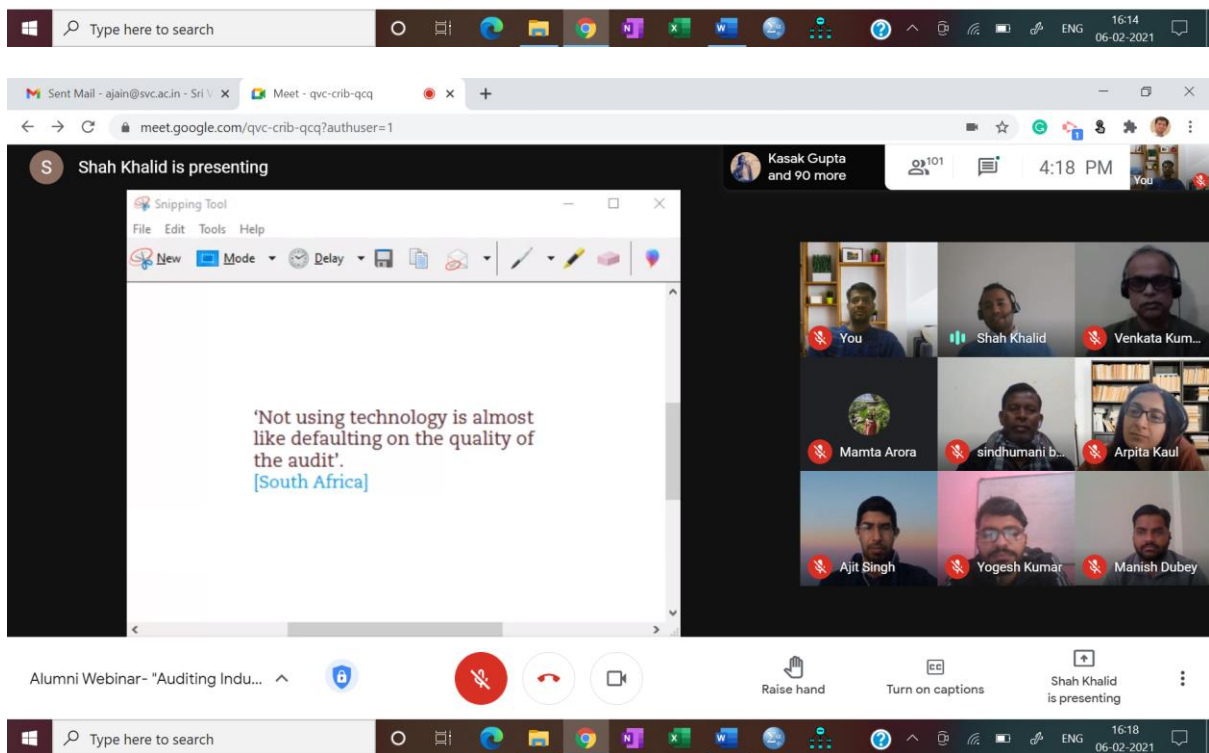

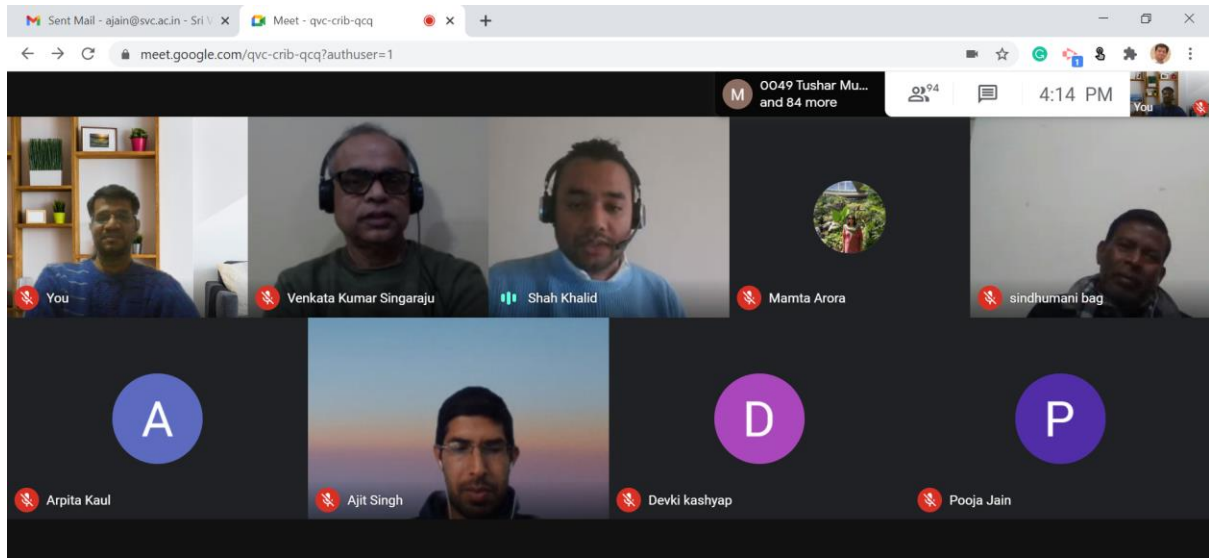

The Commerce Department, SVC organized an online webinar on ‘Audit Industry’ on 6th February 2021. The event was graced by our vice principal Dr. Venkat Kumar, Teacher-in - charge Dr Mamta Arora and other faculty members of the college. The session was open to all students of B. Com and B.com(h). The Speaker of this session was Mr. Mohd. Shah Khalid, Audit Manager at KPMG, UK.

In today’s scenario, where high standards of honesty and integrity are needed in all walks of life. The role of auditing when combined with Ethics and governance becomes all the more important. There was lack of ethics which lead to various scams like Satyam scam, Enron scam, Hawala Scam, Tycon scam, Harshad Mehta scam and list goes on. The significance of Audit has increased many folds since the 20th century which has resulted in recommendations by various committees like Cadbury Committee recommendations, Greenbury Committee recommendations, OECD guidelines and most importantly SOX Act 2002 by SEC.

The session not only threw light on scams and failures, it gave insights into how auditors play their role in preventing companies, general public to protect their hard-earned money. It reflected on how auditors can ensure consistency and present a true and fair view of financial position of the organization’s session focused on why one can choose audit as a career option and also its future prospects. It also provided students a platform to clear their queries related to organization’s ended by giving 3W’s of goal setting namely way power, will power and Why power. It also entertained various doubts of the participants.

The event bestowed faculty members and students with knowledge. Hence, rightly pointed out that Not using technology is almost like defaulting on the quality of the audit.

HISTORIC CORPORATE FAILURES

Enron Scandal (2001)

Best time:

- Largest developer of Windfarm and electricity producer in the US.
- First company in the world to had video call in 2000.
- $100 Billion Revenue and $40 Billion market cap.
- Fortune name most innovative company in USA for 6 consecutive years (only 3 company to achieve this as off now i.e. Apple Computer)
- In 2000, CFO magazine name Andy Foster as CFO of the year because of effective finance structure ability

Worst time:

- Suddenly CEO resigned in 2001 and Wall street posts highlighted this news as significant matter for the company.
- SEC commenced investigation
- Within 4 months, Enron turned from 7th largest revenue company into burst.
- Within 2 years of investigation, CFO was put in the jail and pleaded guilty for the irregularities and fraud in financials.
- Arthur Anderson audited their financials for long period and approved those financials in the past.
- Why did this Happen ??? Use of LOOP HOLES in the law.
