OBJECTIVES OF FDP

The key objectives of this FDP are:

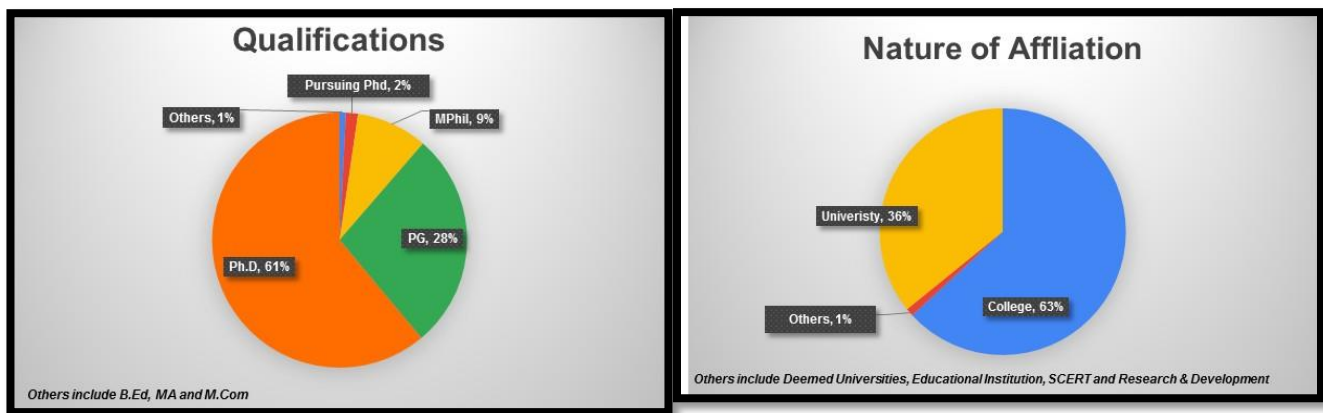

- To provide meaningful and actionable inputs, to refine the strategies and to prepare a “Roadmap” to further enhance the ranking position, recognition, accreditation and grading process.
- To get acquainted with quality assurance, metrics, guidelines and accreditation process of NAAC
- To gain knowledge about the various steps involved in NIRF Framework and calculation of points
- To gain experience about various updated processes and guidelines.
- To explain the important aspects of Self Study Report (SSR).
- To share best practices that can be used for institutional development.
- To create awareness amongst teachers, students, officials and other stakeholders in the higher education system about the implications of NEP 2020.

ABOUT PARTICIPANTS

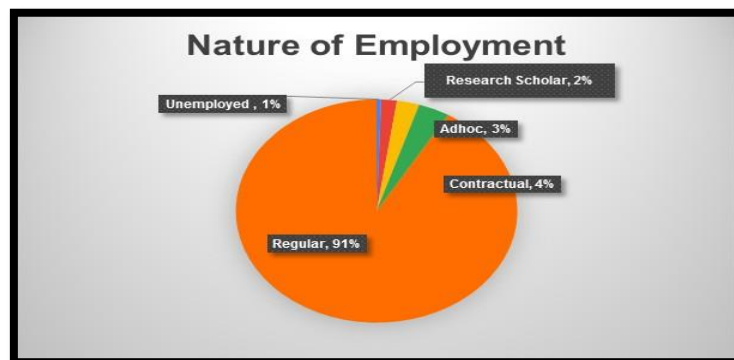

Demographics of Participants (Total – 388 Participants)

There were total 388 participants in the FDP.

Out of 388, 236 of them were Phd holders and 8 were pursuing Phd. Around 35 were M.phil degree holders, 108 were post graduates.

Around 36% of the participants were affiliated from University, 63% from various colleges and rest 1% were from Deemed Universities, Educational Institutions, SCERT and R&D. While most of the participants were permanent employees, adhoc employees constituted 3%, contractual employees were 4% whereas research scholars comprised of 2%.

DAY 4: PANEL DISCUSSION

“NATIONAL EDUCATION POLICY”

DR. S.P. AGGARWAL

PROF. DINESH SINGH

PROF. C.B. SHARMA

PROF. ARUN GROVER

On the fourth day of the FDP, a live panel discussion session was held virtually on 28th November 2020 at 4.00 p.m through zoom platform. The topic of the discussion was “National Education Policy”. The panelists were: Professor Dinesh Singh, Former V.C University of Delhi, Professor Chandra Bhushan Sharma, Professor, IGNOU, New Delhi and Professor Arun Grover, Former V.C, Punjab University. Dr. S.P Aggarwal, Principal, Ramanujan College, University of Delhi moderated the panel discussion.

The session began with a warm welcome address by Dr. Neha Singhal, FDP organizing team member from Sri Venkateswara College. She briefly introduced the speakers of the session. The program convenors Dr. Mamta Arora (Teacher in charge, Department of Commerce, Sri Venkateswara College) and Dr. Pooja Jain (Assistant Professor, Sri Venkateswara College) successfully coordinated the programme.

The moderator, Dr S. P Aggarwal began the session by giving an overview about the program. He talked about the key objectives of the NEP such as sustainable development and making learning holistic, enjoyable and engaging. He emphasized key features of NEP. He said that the NEP is aimed towards critical thinking, equitable and inclusive education. He further talked about how the NEP seeks to revamp the curriculum and pedagogy. Its salient feature includes a ‘single light but tight regulator’. He also elaborated on how multi – disciplinarity and promotion of Indian languages and culture are key focus areas in NEP.

The first panelist, Professor Dinesh Singh highlighted the importance of relating the course curriculum to practical life. Using Cambridge University as an example, he discussed how it developed the surrounding into an economic zone and how that university was making its course curriculum and connecting students in the practical life so they can be the job creator and not job seeker. While answering a question on challenges of India’s University against foreign university he replied that we have the capability to generate high level of knowledge and we should not bother about other universities. Rather we should concentrate on our own job.

The second panelist, Professor C. B. Sharma, emphasized on giving more importance to primary education and said that India's primary education system is not good, without changing the primary education system, we cannot achieve our goal. In this point of view he discussed that NEP-2020 is aimed at reversing the Mc Cauley education system. He talked about the importance of imparting primary education in mother tongue (local language) particularly how it would make the education accessible to the underprivileged first generation learners. He hoped that the NEP-2020 would be successful in bringing a change of India's education system.

The last panelist, Professor Grover traced the history of Indian education system. He talked of the importance science and technology in the education system. He said that by using technology even remote pupil and underprivileged people can avail good education and they can be job creator. So NEP-2020 may be effective as it promotes job creation and it is an extension of what we have not achieved in last 75 years. Also he mentioned that Primary education is important but there is hardly any regulation in school level. Also he discussed about college entrance examination and vocational education for job creator. Even he discussed about how Ashutosh Mukherjee started a college and produced many bright academic leaders.

The participant queries were taken by panelists towards the end. All the panelists gave wonderful insights into the NEP and its key features. The session was very enriching, engaging and interactive.

Dr. Neha Singhal

The event ended successfully at 6 pm with a vote of thanks by Dr. Neha Singhal.
