Mr. Ravi Shingari initiated the discussion with a presentation regarding the transition in lifestyle of individuals during current scenario like Work from Home, IPL using background sounds of claps and cheers due to empty stadium, etc. The audience was encouraged to identify the scenario with pictures of de-globalization, etc. which definitely gave an interesting beginning to the session. He escalated the session with a discussion on varied behavior shown by people in terms of greater focus on insurance and how supply side problem unleashed into a demand side problem and corporates unraveling the benefits of work from home. It was extremely intriguing to understand the response shown by Developed Markets (like USA, Canada, etc.) and Emerging Markets (like India, Vietnam, etc.). There was a discussion at stretch on steps taken by various countries to stabilize their economy via statistics which depicted that expenses on Job Retention Schemes amounted to a whopping 20% followed by Unemployment Insurance. Moreover, it was spellbinding to look at the world after COVID-19 from the perspective of Mr. Shingari in terms of digital progress and the future of Multi-Level Marketing (MLM).

Ms. Shilpa, (Member, Webinar Committee) moderated the question and answer session. The queries ranged from the response of various companies to this unprecedented situation to intertwined impacts of decisions taken by economies of the world. The interactive session knitted the entire audience together as the cynosure was a deliberation on current affairs like US Politics and China's Policy.

At the end, Dr. Pooja Jain, (Member, Webinar Committee) proposed the vote of thanks.

We, the teachers of the Department of Commerce, Sri Venkateswara College feel incredibly gratified to organize such an informative session which beholds so much relevance in status-quo. This webinar was intellectually illuminating not just for students, but was also enlightening for us. We hope to host many such events in the future too.
