Report

The Department of Commerce organized an intriguing and gripping session on "Growing Relevance of Cyber Laws in the Digital Era" on 19th January 2021 from 5 P.M. - 7 P.M. by Mr. Shubham Jain, Advocate, High Court & Ms. Manisha Aswal, LL.M Scholar at NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad. The event was hosted on Microsoft Teams, which was attended by 75+ students and teachers of the Commerce Department. Dr. Neha Singhal, (Convener, Webinar Committee) initiated the session by giving a brief overview of the topic and its stark relevance in our lives. She was then followed by Dr. Mamta Arora, Teacher-in-Charge, who graciously proposed the welcome note on behalf of the commerce department. Then Dr. Neha Singhal, gave the opening remarks and enlightened the inquisitiveness of the audience by introducing the prominent speakers with an insightful and engrossing video.

Mr. Shubham Jain started the session by introducing himself and his co-speaker, Ms. Manisha Aswal. He then proceeded towards explaining the audience, the growing relevance of cyber laws in the digital era, where he pointed the need for IT laws to tackle cyber-crimes, further delving into the dissimilarities of it with conventional crimes. This part was rich with interesting facts and figured which captivated the audience, by quoting world's future projection of the number of cyber-crimes and ascertaining the global cybercrime damage costs at around $6 Trillion USD per year. He also mentioned about the recent WhatsApp privacy issue and gave us interesting insights about the same before passing over the seminar to Ms. Manisha Aswal. She talked about the prevalent Cyber crimes in social media, with an interesting twist to learning cyber laws by giving real life examples and connecting them to set IT laws in order to show its practical application in real-life. Some cases which she took us was the “Bois Locker room” (Cyber Obscenity), “Nidhi Razdan Harvard Job Fraud” (Phishing) etc. After Manisha ma’am gave us a riveting insight into the liability of individuals and owners on an online intermediary platform, the audience was treated to few real-life cases of cyber-crimes, which Mr. Shubham Jain had encountered in his profession. The non-fictional outlook into cyber-crimes was of great example and lesson on the topic. The practical application and usage of digital signatures, as later shown by our distinguished speaker, Mr. Shubham Jain, was the cherry on top of an amazing and mind-numbing session.

The Speakers took the Q&A session consisted of questions on artificial Intelligence in Cyber law and crime as well as further discussions on steps to take in order to be protect yourself from crimes. Dr. Pooja Jain then bid adieu to the audience by proposing the vote of thanks.

We, the teachers of the Department of Commerce, Sri Venkateswara College feel incredibly gratified to organize such an informative session which beholds so much relevance in status-quo. This webinar was intellectually illuminating not just for students, but was also enlightening for us. We hope to host many such events in the future too.
