Entrepreneurship during College: By Ayush Jaiswal

E-Talk 2021 witnessed an extremely knowledgeable session with Mr. Ayush Jaiswal, CEO and founder of Pesto tech. Mr. Ayush commenced the session by talking to the audience about his journey and how the Internet helped him achieve great success. He told the students that there are three things one should never miss in life, these are: Books, Travel and Dogs. He suggested to students that when it comes to pursuing something as a career, they need to weigh in their passion, their skills and what pays. He inspired the attendees by telling that one should never dread failure, instead think of it as the first step towards success. He also talked about the role of mentorship in a start up and its vital importance. He advised students to learn about and get into enterprise marketing. Mr. Ayush also spoke extensively about his work ethics and schedule. He suggested that if one gets bored with his/her start up then he/she should probably not pursue it, as it might not be their passion. At the end of the session Mr. Jaiswal also told the students how they can overcome rejection by asking themselves one simple question "Can you do something about it?". Overall it was an extremely enriching and an insightful session.
