Summary Report :

The Department of Electronics, Sri Venkateswara College Organized a Virtual Lab Visit to Electropreneur Park, South Campus and webinar on “Entrepreneurship and Opportunities for Start-ups in Electronics” on 23rd June 2021. The webinar and virtual lab visit started at 3 PM with an introduction of the event and speakers Mr. Sanjeev Chopra, CEO, Electropreneur Park and Ms. Purvi Roy, CEO and Founder of Arista Vault Startup by Mr. Rishant Yadav. Then our respected Principal Ma’am Professor C. Sheela Reddy expressed her gratitude towards the Speakers and praised the Convener Dr. Sunita Jain and the event coordinators Dr. Rakhi Narang and Ms. Shubhra Gupta for organizing the virtual lab visit, which was not possible physically in this pandemic. This informative session was attended by about 60 participants that included students and faculty members from Delhi University.

The one hour event was initially briefed by Mr. Sanjeev Chopra. Then Ms. Purvi Roy shared her experience & thought process with the attendees. How she established her own start-up Arista Vaults and her vision to make human life easy, simple and safe. She also mentioned about the range of her antitheft products and how they are transforming the lives of the people. This session was followed by another informative talk by Mr. Sanjeev Chopra on entrepreneurship. Participants were told the real meaning of entrepreneurship and inform about various perspectives of an entrepreneur such as creating a plan execution, sustainability, and growth. Then participants got the opportunity to virtually visit the laboratory of Electropreneur Park, where they were briefed by Mr. Akhilesh Yadav about the various instruments and facilities provided for the research purposes by Electropreneur park. He also informed about the various startups technically supported by Electropreneur park. There was a Q/A session at the end in which participants could clear their queries.

The event ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Sunita Jain. She expressed her gratitude towards both the speakers for their informative and enriching sessions and the virtual lab visit to Electropreneur Park. Overall It was an informative session for the faculty members and students.
