REPORT- MERA VOTE, MERI PEHCHAAN- Electoral Awareness Session

EVENT SUMMARY

The Department of Political Science at Sri Venkateswara College in collaboration with the District Election Office and Electoral Literacy Club conducted an Electoral awareness session 25th January 2025, from 10:30 AM onwards on the College Main Ground. The session was conducted to enhance democratic engagement, promote voter participation and activism, and raise awareness about electoral responsibilities.

IAS Sunny Singh, District Magistrate and District Election Officer was the Chief Guest and the keynote speaker. The event started with the Principal addressing the gathering, highlighting the role of educational institutions in fostering civic responsibility among students. The District Election Officer (DEO) followed with an insightful speech on the electoral process, stressing the significance of voting in shaping governance. They discussed various initiatives to ensure free and fair elections and encouraged everyone to exercise their franchise. Afterwards Jaishree S. Godwin, the founder of Hryda Sara Foundation, shared a few words. Post this the Convenor of the event addressed the audience.

As a special gesture, first-time voters were felicitated with mementos, recognizing their commitment to active citizenship. The event concluded with a street play (Nukkad Natak) to raise awareness, followed by Vote of Thanks and a group Photograph.
