Q10

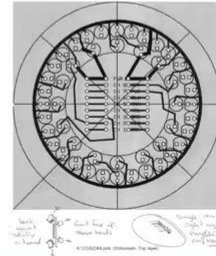

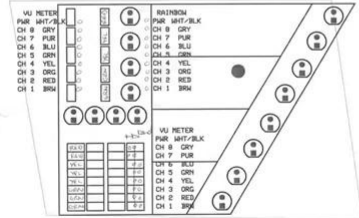

Since Medieval times, this symbol has been used to represent the holy trinity. In the late 1980's it was used to mimic the Tryzub and symbolised anti-communist sentiments.

In 2008, It became a part of pop culture after being used by a certain community, as a gesture of thanks, respect, gratitude, or to say goodbye to a loved one. It then went on to become a cry against authoritarian regimes and was even banned in a certain South East Asian country.

ID the phenomenon from 2008 and the gesture which made headlines as recently as February 2021.

Q5*

Pictured here is a brief framework of a creative project undertaken nearly two decades ago, after a particular musical endeavour was dismissed as silly. This project served the dual purpose of prioritising art over fame, while also introducing an iconic genre-breaking identity, lasting until it's epilogue recently.
