From the Hostel Diary

“Ye safar tha suhana
Ise sametne ko jee chahta h
Firse jeene ko jee chahta h
Woh Warden ka darr
Late nights aur nightouts k pange
Jo hamei hi padh jate the mehenge
Cultural committee ka meeting k liye chillana
Fir bhi hamara usme aur late Jana
Aunty ka gudia gudia pukarna
Mess menu k discussion pr ma'am ka 90 RS Wala funda
Jo hamei aaj tk samajh na aaaya
Subah 8:50 uthna taki brkfast miss na ho jaye
Extra gulab jamun mangna aur
Dosa k liye lambi line Mei Igna dosto k sath masti aur raat ko
Shor hone pr guard aunty ki daant
Woh padmavati ki raatei aur sabki choti-choti baatein
Yaad aayenge hostel k festivals aur
Ye choti si family.....!!!
Kaash hum rok skte in lamho ko Pr
Beet jayenge ye pal bhi Aur
Reh jayengi toh bas kuch sunheri yaadeinnnnn!”

“Gathering in one room for discussions and celebrations, countless sleepless nights, special way of celebrating birthdays and festivals, banging the doors in search of some food, converting late nights into night outs and opening accounts in night canteen during the exams are some experiences that you can only wish to have again.”

-Manish Jain

From the Hostel Diary

"I will miss not only the friends I made, but also the people working behind the scenes. Panditji in our first year who was so sweet to us and treated us like his own daughters; Bharti aunty who scolds us when we miss breakfast in the mornings or do not let her clean our room ('cause we are always late for college, duh); and all the others who make The Hostel 'a home away from home.'"

-Neha Agrawal

"Before joining this hostel, 'HOSTEL' was like a nightmare for me because the things which I heard about hostel was ragging, like a jail, spoiled mess food and so many things. But after joining and staying for 3 years in the hostel my perception has totally changed towards hostel. In short hostel is like a mini life for me because you meet new guys here and some of them become your best friends for your life. Hostel teaches us to adjust, have fun with discipline and the most important thing how to enjoy life. Your pain becomes your power when 72 persons are with you. In 3 years of my hostel life I have learnt so many things from seniors, batch mates and juniors too. For outsiders hostel is a jail and for insiders it's a different world. At last I finish with two lines:

PEOPLE COME, PEOPLE GO,
BUT HOSTEL STAYS FOREVER."
