REPORT

Child sexual abuse is a deeply troubling issue that affects individuals, families, and society as a whole. To eradicate this heinous crime from our society and to spread awareness about it and the legal frameworks in place to combat it, NSS-SVC organized a webinar about the POCSO Act for the prevention of child abuse in collaboration with the Rakshin Project. The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO) was passed in 2012 to comprehensively deal with the issue of sexual offenses against children. POCSO not only spells out the punishments for offenses but also sets out a system for support of victims and improved methods for catching offenders. The webinar and preceding questionnaire with an expert speaker played an important role in informing the audience about this problem and how one can make a difference as an individual and be an ally to the cause.
