REPORT

The Cleanliness Drive conducted on 1st October as a part of the Ek tarikh, Ek ghanta, Ek saath initiative under The Swachh Bharat Abhyan was a collective effort by NSS volunteers to promote better sanitation and waste management by collection, sorting and proper disposal of junk articles in the college campus and neighbouring public places like the embassy area as well as satya park. This initiative aimed to foster long term habits beneficial to the maintenance of clean communal areas by spreading awareness of the cons of poor hygiene and by linking lack of sanitation as the leading cause of spreading of vector and water borne diseases like malaria, dengue, cholera etc. It also helped in engaging the community in an effort that concerns people of all ages and backgrounds for it affects our country and cleanliness is a concern of all citizens.
