REPORT

ASHA – The Mega Distribution Drive organised by NSS SVC aimed to provide essential resources such as clothing, food, stationery, and sanitary pads to underprivileged communities while promoting values of sharing and social responsibility among students. The drive was organised in collaboration with local NGOs and community leaders to identify beneficiaries. A collection centre was set up on campus, and volunteers from NSS SVC efficiently sorted and packed the donated items before distributing them at the adopted slum of Sanjay Camp.

The outcomes of the drive were impactful: children were excited to receive school supplies, fostering a positive attitude towards education, while women and girls benefitted from the distribution of sanitary pads. Cooked meals, clothes and blankets were provided to the community, ensuring nourishment and comfort. Volunteers found joy in giving and gained a deeper sense of empathy and devotion to community service. The event successfully reinforced the mission of NSS - fostering compassion and collective action, strengthening the connection between the campus community and society.
