REPORT

The seminar conducted by ITM Group witnesses the participation of 67 students. The seminar commenced with the speaker Mr. Alok Kumar, talking about taking action in life and how it transforms. He discussed why interviews are so important and what all skills are required if one needs to crack an interview. Sir defined communication and highlighted that it can be assessed by the response one gets. He also threw light on the elements of communication and how much each of them matter. He further drew a parallel to how communication techniques matter in an interview and what are the ways to optimize the same. This was followed by a role play wherein one student was an interviewer and the other was an interviewee which resulted in sir giving pointers on the mistakes made and explained how interviews need to be handled and described the right way to answer some of the most commonly asked questions. He discussed the importance of self-talk and self-confidence and how one can achieve anything they work towards. He stressed on the fact that preparation and practice leads to confidence and thinking big can be one of the major factors leading to success. He further provided certain necessities and tips on how to crack online interviews with perfection. The session concluded with a brief question answer round wherein sir answers the doubts faced by the students.
