POSTER:

EVENT SUMMARY:

On the 17th February 2024, the Equal Opportunity Cell orchestrated a delightful excursion to Madhavgarh Farms, a picturesque locale nestled amidst the scenic Aravalli Range, renowned for its invigorating atmosphere and plethora of recreational activities. This outing was meticulously planned to foster a sense of camaraderie and community among both volunteers and students with physical disabilities (PWD). Under the astute guidance of our Convener Dr. Kanwar Singh and the dedicated committee members, the trip aimed to promote inclusivity and raise awareness about the challenges faced by individuals with disabilities.

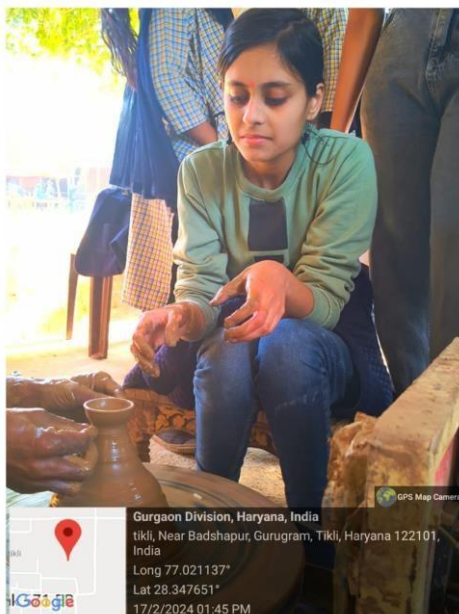

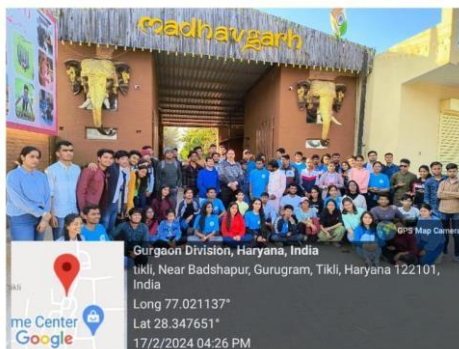

The journey commenced with great anticipation and enthusiasm as two buses embarked on the adventure at 9:30 am, arriving at our destination promptly at 10:30 am. Welcomed with refreshing drinks and traditional tilak rituals, the vibrant energy of the students reverberated through the air as they danced joyously to the rhythmic beats of the dhol nagara. Following this spirited welcome, everyone gathered in the dining hall for a hearty breakfast at 11:00 am, setting the stage for a day filled with excitement and camaraderie.

The sprawling grounds of Madhavgarh Farms provided the perfect backdrop for a plethora of exhilarating activities, including camel and bullock cart rides, zip lining, trampoline jumping, and archery, among others. Every activity was carefully designed to ensure full participation from both volunteers and PWD students, fostering a sense of inclusivity and empowerment. Throughout the day, the volunteers provided unwavering support and guidance, enabling the PWD students to showcase their skills and resilience.

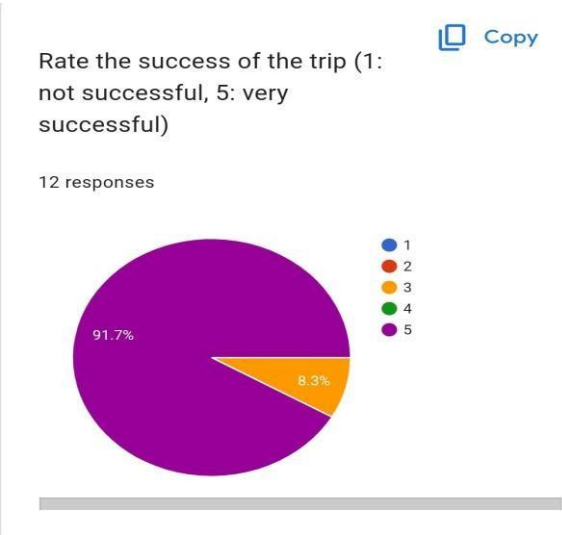

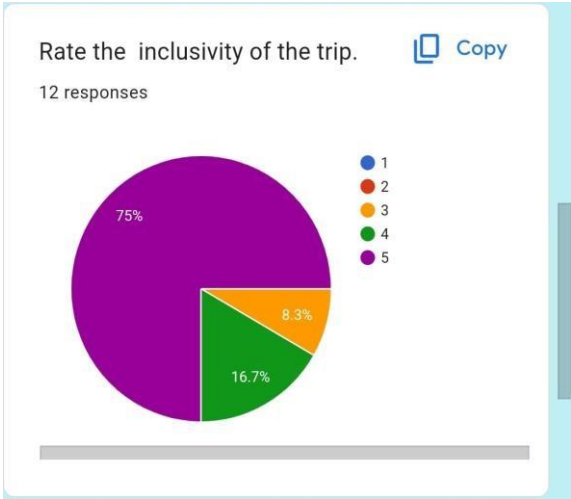

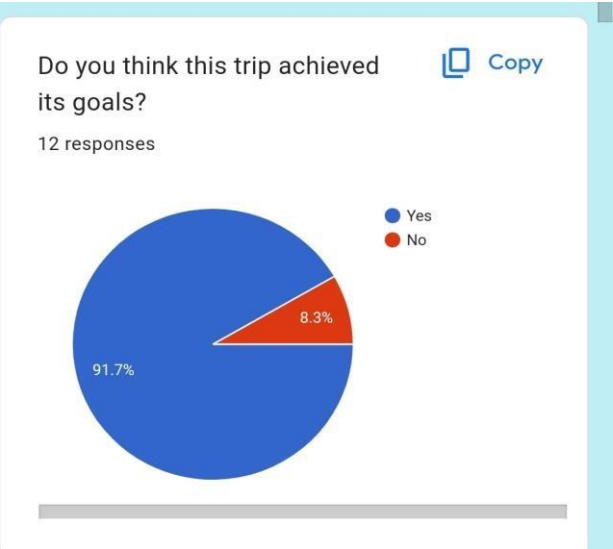

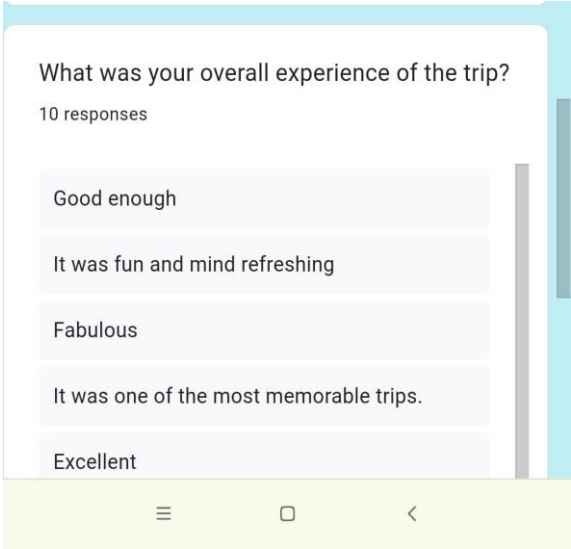

As the day unfolded, students indulged in pottery making, mehendi application, and cultural performances, further enriching their experience and creating lasting memories. A sumptuous lunch featuring traditional delicacies was served, followed by snacks and a lively DJ session where everyone danced with unbridled joy. The day culminated with heartfelt singing and laughter as the buses departed Madhavgarh Farms at 4:30 pm, leaving behind a trail of cherished memories and newfound friendships.

This enchanting event marked a significant stride towards greater inclusivity and awareness within society, reaffirming the Equal Opportunity Cell's commitment to fostering a supportive and inclusive environment for all. As participants reflected on the day's festivities, it became evident that moments of shared laughter and camaraderie transcended barriers, uniting individuals from diverse backgrounds in a celebration of joy and friendship. With each trip, the Equal Opportunity Cell continues to pave the way for a more inclusive and compassionate future, where every individual is valued and embraced for their unique contributions.
