REPORT

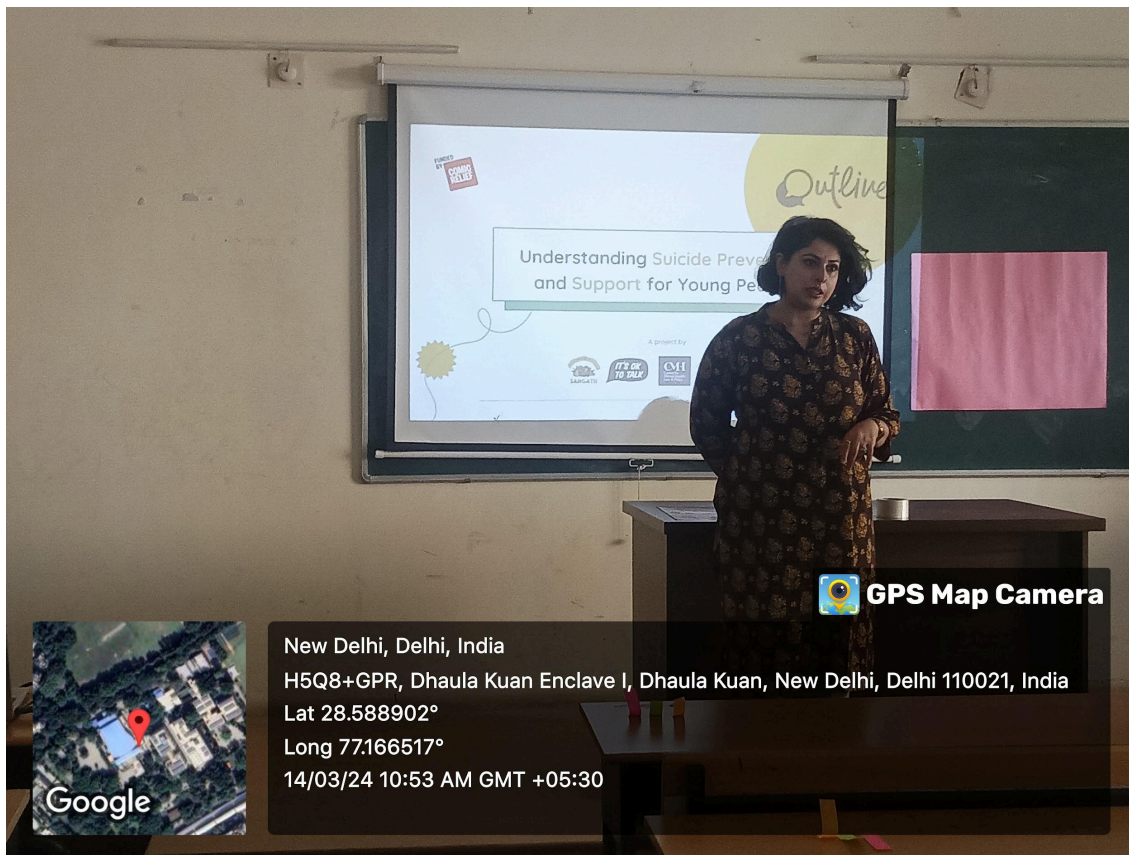

Empathise, the mental health society of Sri Venkateswara College organized and hosted a Suicide Prevention Workshop on 14th March 2024 in Room no 301.

The event was headed by Ms Lekhanshi Manocha who is a suicide prevention facilitator. She is pursuing a postgraduate degree in Psychology from North Campus, University of Delhi. Her passion lies in contributing to the society as a therapist, researcher, and mental health advocate and Ms. Neha Sharma who is a suicide prevention facilitator . She is currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the School of Open Learning, University of Delhi. Neha is deeply passionate about making a difference in society through her work as a facilitator, mentor, and advocate for mental health and well-being.

The Session began after the convenor Dr. Ritika Singh addressed the gathering on behalf of Empathise and presented the speakers with the token of appreciation and welcomed them.

The workshop was highly interactive as there were fruitful discussions about myths and facts relating to suicide prevention. Further the speakers of the workshop also shared with the participants a real life documentary of a suicide survivor which inculcated great knowledge in the minds of the participants.
