• POSTER & INVITES: -

North-East Students Association of Sri Venkateswara College extends a warm welcome to the Batch of 2026/27. Join us at the NESA, SVC orientation as we guide you through the wonderful experiences we have here.

- Date: Saturday, September 30, 2023
- Time: 9:30 a.m.
- Venue: Room No. 14
- Theme: Traditional

The North East Students' Association of Sri Venkateswara College is organizing a film screening for all the students of Sri Venkateswara College on Saturday, September 30, 2023, at 12 noon in Room No. 14. The film is in Hindi, and we would be very grateful to have all of you at the screening. We look forward to seeing all of you soon!

About the film: "Axone" is a heartwarming movie that delves into the lives of a group of Northeastern migrants in Delhi as they strive to prepare a traditional dish called 'axone' for a friend's wedding. Through humor and challenges, the movie explores themes of culture, friendship, and the struggle for acceptance in a new city, offering a fresh perspective on the immigrant experience in your own country with levity and authenticity.

• SUMMARY OF THE EVENT: -

The NESA Orientation was held on 30 September for the term 2023-2024. Freshers were asked to attend in traditional attire, to showcase it and also feel closer to home.

The event started off with an introduction to the core for that tenure and also a much-needed introduction to NESAs, its role and contribution and lastly, its convenors of whom, Sir Haokam and Sir Chandramani Singh were able to attend and even deliver speeches to the audience. After the formal aspects of the orientation, a movie screening took place. We projected "Axone", a movie based on the struggles of the Northeasterns in other parts of India where the very diverse cultures are sometimes found difficult to be readily accepted.

The Orientation helped us connect with each other and form good relationships as it was the first event of the tenure. We were also able to make the freshers understand their rights and to not tolerate any form of racism.
