BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY

TOPIC/SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	Webinar on 'Increase in Marriageable age for Women in India'
OBJECTIVES	The webinar aimed to help students understand the implications of the The Prohibition of Child Marriage (Amendment) Bill, 2021, which seeks to raise the age of legal marriage for women from 18 to 21. Keeping in mind the context that we live in, this law will unfold within a society that is deeply entrenched in patriarchy and therefore may bring in several new problems. Through the webinar, we sought to understand the implications of this move on women's autonomy. Having only 1 woman member in the panel who will examine this bill to raise the legal marriage age, brings into light the problem of representation and inclusivity in the Indian legislative system. A nuanced understanding of this law can outline the intersectional impact of the same.
METHODOLOGY	The webinar was conducted by the Women's Development Cell of Sri Venkateswara College. The event was open to students in and outside of the college. It was followed by a mediated discussion between the attendees. Finally, a Question-Answer Round was organized to address doubts of the attendees.
INVITED SPEAKERS WITH AFFILIATION DETAILS (IF ANY)	Dr. Ratna Raman (Professor, Dept. of English, SVC) and Mr. Aman Nawaz (Assistant Professor, Dept. of English, SVC)
OUTCOMES	Due to the engaging discussion, the webinar created a discourse on the consequences of implementing the bill to increase marriageable age of women to 21 years. The speakers analysed how the introduction of the Prohibition of Child Marriage (Amendment) Bill, 2021 the move infringed upon several personal laws in violation of fundamental rights.

Respected Ma'am,

The Women's Development Cell of Sri Venkateswara College looks forward to organising a webinar on "Increase in Marriageable age for Women in India". The session is scheduled to be held on 10th January 2022 on the virtual platform Zoom between 6:00 PM - 7:00 PM IST.

We intend to invite Dr. Ratna Raman and Mr. Aman Nawaz, faculty at the Department of English, Sri Venkateswara College. The event will be moderated by the WDC's convenor, Dr. Rina Ramdev.

Keeping in mind the context that we live in, this law will unfold within a society that is deeply entrenched in patriarchy and therefore may bring in several new problems. Through the webinar, we seek to understand the implications of this move on women's autonomy. Having only one woman member in the panel who will examine this bill, brings into light the problem of representation and inclusivity in the Indian legislative system. A nuanced understanding of this law can outline the intersectional impact of the same.

We believe that the session will be enriching and engaging for students of our college.

Dear Prof Reddy,

I hope you've been well.

I request you to grant the WDC permission to organise this Webinar on the important subject of the increase in women's marriageable age.

I was intending to come to College to get this letter signed by you, but now with this spike in Omicron cases I'm a little wary. Therefore, I request you to kindly give us the permission through email if possible.

Regards
Rina

No

Loved it, we should have more such sessions to get to know about different perspectives.

Overall event was really very fruitful!

The session could be uploaded to platforms like Instagram/Facebook for folks outside the college to gain information.

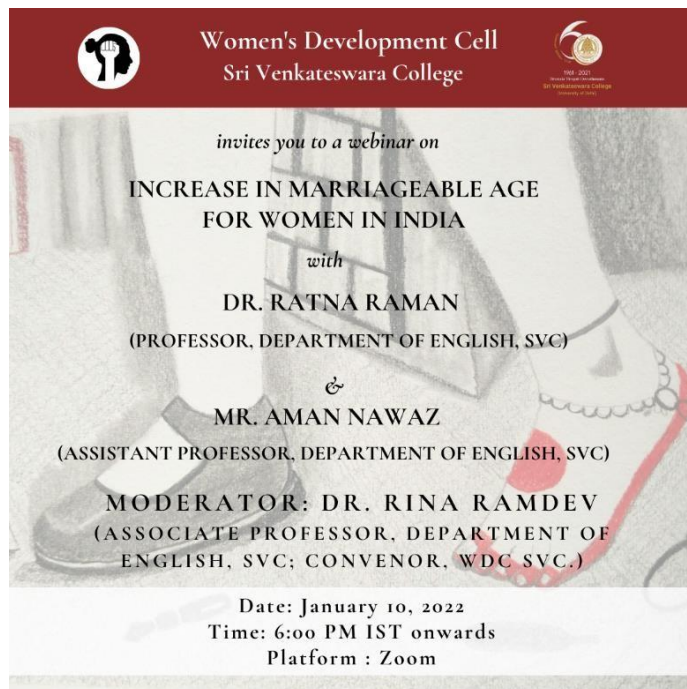

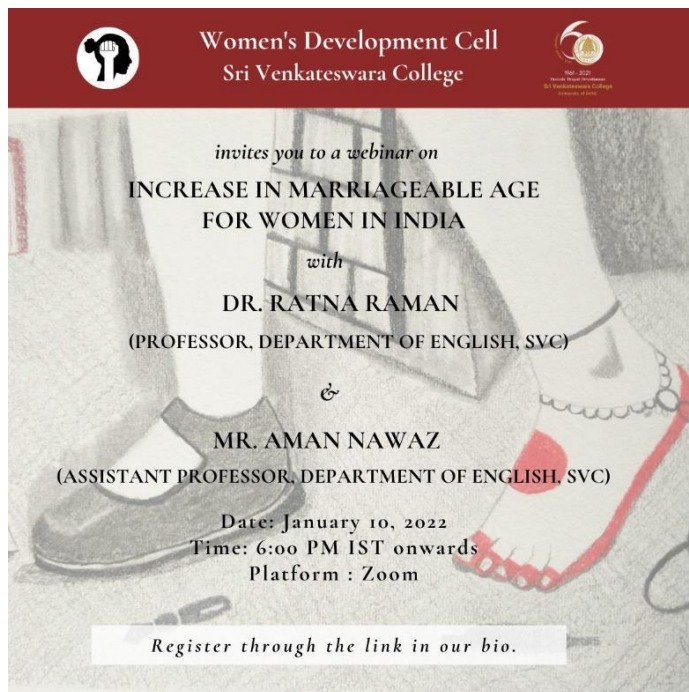

We need more session like these where speaker dont use complicated/fancy words to explain their view points :P

It was one of the best webinars I had attended.

Pretty insightful and fun rather than boring

If the event was recorded, kindly share a link on the main group. I had to leave early and missed the latter half of the event. Would love to listen to the whole thing.

Event report Attested by Event Coordinator & IQAC Coordinator:

The Women's Development Cell of Sri Venkateswara College organised a webinar on "Increase in Marriageable Age for Women in India" on 10th January 2022. Dr. Ratna Raman and Mr. Aman Nawaz from the Department of English, Sri Venkateswara College were the panellists who shared their thoughts with the audience. Dr. Rina Ramdev, convener of the Women's Development Cell moderated the event. Our principal, Professor Sheela Reddy graced us with her presence.

The webinar began with our president highlighting the recent increase in the marriageable age of girls from 18 to 21 years. While many touted it as a measure of women's empowerment, Dr Ramdev underlined how such a type of law only strengthens the highly patriarchal system existing in the society. Taking the discussion further, the two speakers enlightened the attendees with their thoughts regarding the government's move.

Dr. Ratna Raman emphasised that we live in a complex male-dominated society and this step is not enough to counter the prevailing gender inequalities, especially at the grass-root level. As said by professor Raman, moreover, such laws further strengthen the patriarchal state in controlling women's sexuality, ultimately degrading their status as second-class citizens.

Our second speaker, Mr. Aman Nawaz, discussed the deeper problems that can arise because of this amendment. According to him, this change creates a threat to inter-caste/inter-faith marriages, annulment of child marriages, and most importantly, perpetuates the infantilization of women. Mr. Nawaz concluded that consent should be the ideal criteria for marriage instead of age.

The Q & A session that followed the discussion was informative and gave us a better idea about the topic. The webinar ended with a vote of thanks by our vice president.
