GUIDELINES FOR VOTE COUNTING

I. A vote will be considered valid if the tick mark (✓) is placed against the name of the candidate and the majority of the mark is within the designated box. A double tick (✓✓) in the same box will also be treated as a valid vote.

II. If there is ambiguity, i.e., most of the tick mark is outside the designated box, the vote will be treated as invalid.

III. Any mark or sign other than a tick mark (✓) will be considered invalid.

IV. In the event of a tie, a coin toss will be conducted ten times to determine the winner. If the result remains undecided, the process will be repeated.

V. If the margin of victory or loss is less than 10 votes, recounting will be permitted only if requested by the candidate raising the grievance.

Active cooperation of one and all shall highly be appreciated.

Note :- Any addendum/corrigendum shall be posted on the college website only.
