REPORT

The Departmental Orientation at Sri Venkateswara College's Sociology Department, held on September 02, 2024, from 10.30 AM was a significant event for new and returning students. The orientation aimed to provide a comprehensive understanding of the department's ethos, history, and offerings. It began with a motivating introductory speech by Khushi, a third-year student, followed by Dr Satheesh Perumalla, the department's TIC, who shared valuable insights into the department's trajectory and its role in the academic landscape.

As the event's anchors, Khushi and Khushi Meena guided the orientation smoothly. Dr. Padma Priyadarshini elaborated on the department's vision, mission, and historical roots, emphasizing the relevance of sociology in society. Esteemed faculty members highlighted various aspects, including the interdisciplinary nature of sociology, critical thinking, interactive teaching methodologies, and real-world applications of sociological theories. Dr. Satheesh Perumalla discussed the Sociology Association's ongoing endeavours.

The orientation also featured senior students who presented the department's activities and opportunities for holistic academic experiences. The event concluded with a vote of thanks from Khushi, expressing gratitude to all participants.

The Sociology Department's orientation was an inspiring and informative event, highlighting the department's commitment to holistic education, critical inquiry, and active engagement in the discipline. It left attendees with a renewed sense of purpose and enthusiasm for their academic journey.
