REPORT

The awareness rally on the theme “Green Campus, Clean Campus” was successfully carried out across the South Campus with the collaborative efforts of NSS and NCC volunteers. Beginning in the morning, the rally witnessed enthusiastic participation, with students carrying banners and raising slogans that not only highlighted the importance of maintaining a clean and green campus but also emphasized the urgent need for clean elections free from pamphlet littering. The march attracted significant attention from the campus community and passersby, sparking meaningful conversations on sustainable election practices and eco-friendly campaigning. The combined energy and discipline of the volunteers ensured the rally made a lasting impact, demonstrating how youth can be the driving force in aligning environmental responsibility with democratic values.
