It has built a legacy of impactful performances, earning widespread recognition and securing victories in prestigious competitions. The society is committed to both artistic expression and social consciousness, making it a well-recognized force in the world of dance.

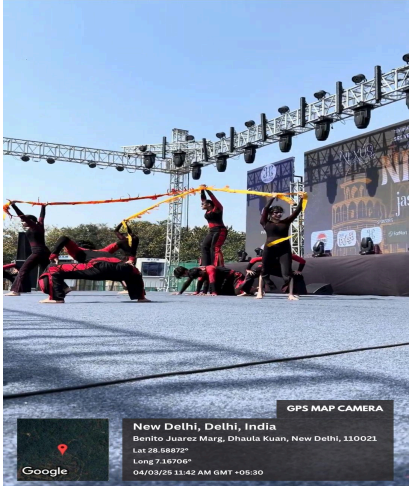

Nritya has expressed pride in its dedication to using dance as a medium for social change. Every year, it organizes its annual signature event, Choreonite, a thematic group dance competition that invites dance teams from across Delhi NCR to present their 8-10 minute annual productions. These performances revolve around various themes that aim to convey important social messages. The event serves as a platform for artists to showcase their creativity while raising awareness about pressing issues. Through Choreonite, the society aims to celebrate the transformative power of dance, inspiring audiences to engage with and reflect on the messages conveyed through movement and expression.

The competition follows a structured format, beginning with an online preliminary round where 7-8 teams are selected to perform in the final round. On the day of the finals, a slotting game is conducted to determine the performance order for each team. Based on the assigned slots, teams present their productions one by one on stage. Following the performances, the judges select the top two teams as the winners of the event.

PETRICHOR

A sanctuary for wordsmiths, poets, and storytellers, Petrichor is where creativity flows and metaphors hit harder than reality. With a team of 53 literary daredevils and a core that bleeds ink, we don't just write—we paint with words, carve with syllables, and craft stories that linger. Here, wit is our weapon, and imagination is our muse.

1- Alfaaz – The Creative Writing Competition

They say words are bridges—spanning the distance between reality and reverie, stitching together the intangible with ink and breath. With Metro Manuscripts as our theme, Alfaaz was designed to push creative boundaries. Participants, blindfolded, aimed a laser pointer at a Delhi map to determine two landmarks, which became the foundation of their pieces. In addition, they selected random elements from a draw-of-lots, both of which had to be intricately woven into their write-ups.

Winners List

First Position- Uday Jadoun; Sri Venkateswara College

Second Position- Asma; Bharti College

Third Position- Rosy; Indraprastha College for Women

Special Mentions: Samiksha Mishra; Miranda House Ashutosh Sharma; SGBT Khalsa

Alfaaz was not just a competition—it was a celebration of storytelling. Conducting Alfaaz'25 reminded us once again: words are not just written, they are felt.

Until next time, where another word, another story, and another Alfaaz await.

2- Izhaar – The Slam Poetry Competition

Izhaar 2025 was a celebration of Delhi's heritage, where poets became time travelers, capturing the essence of an era long past. This year, Izhaar challenged participants to embrace the poetic styles of the past, immersing their verses in the soul of old Delhi. From echoes of Ghalib's musings to the grandeur of Mughal courtyards, each poem was a journey through time.

Izhaar 2025 witnessed an unprecedented response from the entire DU circuit and beyond. Poets from various colleges across the city registered for the competition, making it one of the most competitive editions yet. Due to the high number of entries, a preliminary online round was conducted to shortlist participants. After rigorous screening, 34 poets made it to the final stage.

Winners List

First Position- Manisha Kumari; Kamala Nehru College

Second Position- Amita Yadav; Gargi College

Third Position- Nidhi Kumari; Hansraj College

Special Mentions: Sarthak Chaturvedi; Keshav Mahavidyalaya Vaibhav Bhel; Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Technology

Izhaar was an invocation, a resurrection of voices long lost in the corridors of time. It was Delhi speaking, not in bricks and ruins, but in echoes of poetry that refused to be forgotten. From the moonlit ruins of Mehrauli to the imperial grandeur of the Red Fort, every verse carried the weight of empires, every pause held centuries within its breath.

In the Nexus 2025 edition, more than 50 writers participated in both Alfaaz and Izhaar, making it a grand literary spectacle. The theme, Jashn-e-Dilli, set the stage for a celebration of Delhi's soul, reflected in every poem, story, and spoken word that graced the event.
