Dear Sir/Madam,
Greetings.

Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi is organizing the National Student Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) 2025, with the kind support of the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEFCC), Government of India.

We respectfully request the Vice chancellor to kindly circulate the attached NSPC 2025 communication among all government, government-aided, and recognized Universities and affiliated colleges across the state. Your esteemed Universities support in encouraging student participation would play a vital role in strengthening environmental consciousness among the youth of India.

NSPC at a Glance:

Since its launch in 2022, NSPC has seen active involvement from lakhs of students across thousands of schools throughout India and over 100 countries worldwide. The scale and impact of the competition have grown steadily each year, and we look forward to even greater engagement in the 2025 edition.

The competition is scheduled from 1st July to 21st August 2025 and is designed to sensitise students about critical environmental challenges through awareness-building and action-based activities. Letters of support from the Ministry of Education and MoEFCC are enclosed for your kind reference.

We would be sincerely grateful if a copy of the communication issued by your office this year could also be shared with us.

Thank you for your continued support in nurturing environmentally aware and responsible students.

Warm regards,
Sandeep Balyan

आदरणीय महोदया/महोदय,

As you are aware, Climate change is increasingly becoming a global challenge, and the world has already started to experience catastrophic results in various forms, such as increased frequencies of cyclones, floods, cloud bursts, forest fires, and extreme weather conditions.

In order to raise awareness about the severe impacts of climate change, Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi, an organization dedicated to environmental improvement, is organizing a National Students Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) from July 1, 2025, to 21 August 2025. The competition will take place online. All participating institutions and students will be awarded E-certificates.

A detailed programme of the competition is enclosed.

The Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) are requested to share this information about the NSPC among the students, faculty and staff and encourage their participation in the competition.

Subject: Request for Participation of Students under Delhi University for National Students Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) From 1st July 2025 to 21th Aug 2025.

Climate change is increasingly becoming a global challenge and already the world has started seeing catastrophic results in various forms such as increased frequencies of cyclones, floods, cloud bursts, forest fires, etc. As per UN data, Climatic changes have already caused over 150,000 deaths annually world over. It is now well comprehended by all the Nations that unless emphasis is made and actions are taken to control the climate degeneration, the world will face irreversible catastrophic damage.

Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi (PSG):

Paryavaran Sanrakshan is an organization dedicated to improving the environment. 500+ districts with volunteers pan India are part of this organization. The aim of the organization is to make tangible and measurable changes to improve the quality of the environment through various activities and awareness campaigns.

NSPC at a Glance:

The organization has grown leaps and bounds achieving phenomenal results making it a success story. We were pleasantly surprised to acknowledge that 107 foreign countries participated in the competition.

We took baby steps in organizing the National Students Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) online in the year 2022. In this competition more than 55,000 schools and 8,46,000 students participated across the country.

In the year 2023 more than 72,000 Educational institutes and more than 6,50,000 students participated. The icing on the cake was that 103 foreign countries also participated in this completion.

In the year 2024 more than 45,022 Educational institutes and more than 7,09,173 students participated. The icing on the cake was that 107 foreign countries also participated in this completion. This year we are expecting much more participation than the previous three years.

Aims & Objectives of the Program:

1. Holistic Actions for Revival of Indigenous Traditions (HARIT).
2. To foster understanding among young individuals and the general public regarding the intricate complexities of the imminent threats posed by unchecked climate destruction.
3. To acquire knowledge on the job skills, competency & attitude to confront the environmental challenges & their mitigation.

You are requested to pass suitable instructions to all Students under Delhi University for National Students Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) From 1st July 2025 to 21th Aug 2025.

Please find an enclosed detailed program of the competition to be conducted on above dates.
