*The Departments under Group 1 should note that a lumpsum amount of Rs. 50000/- each has already been transferred to them as part of the Laboratory Improvement Grant. Dependent on the final number of students after the finalisation of the ACR, the sum would accordingly be increased or decreased.

The maximum allocation which has been set apart under this heading on the basis of tentative numbers for Group I and Group 2 are Rs.400000/- and Rs. 306000/- respectively. The final assignment shall be on the basis of the number of students registered for dissertations/ Academic Project as shall be provided by the Research Committee by the 1st of November 2025. The final allocations shall accordingly be done. The guidelines with respect to utilisation is given below.

Guidelines with respect to the utilisation of funds

The funds assigned shall be spent by the Subject Research Committee of the Department. It would be appreciated if the same could be utilised towards enhancing research infrastructural facilities at the departmental level through the purchase of equipments, chemicals and required software, conduct of research colloquia and workshops. If experiments are to be done from outside the college, it shall preferably be done from the laboratories within the University of Delhi against bills. Prior permission has to be taken in this regard. This also holds true with respect to the utilisation of the facilities of the umbrella initiative of the AI network of the MeTY. However expenditure not more than 15% could be utilised for stationery, printing and other contingent expenditure.
