REPORT

Youth India Foundation, Sri Venkateswara College, successfully organized a speaker session on 29/10/25, an insightful session aimed at inspiring young minds to explore the journey of entrepreneurship and business growth. The event featured Ms. Nutan Gupta, COO of Easemytrip, who shared valuable experiences and lessons on navigating the path from startup inception to public listing. The session provided students with a deeper understanding of scaling strategies, financial planning and leadership in a competitive market environment. Through engaging discussions and interactive participation, students gained meaningful exposure to the startup ecosystem, innovation-driven growth and the realities of building sustainable ventures. The event served as a platform to nurture entrepreneurial thinking and motivate students to pursue their aspirations with vision, confidence and determination.
