BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY

TOPIC/SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	Monologue Writing Session
OBJECTIVES	To explore and learn the art of monologue writing as a tool for personal storytelling and performative expression. The session also marked the launch of our annual newsletter, celebrating the poetic and literary spirit of Petrichor.
METHODOLOGY	The event began with the screening of the film The Lunchbox, known for its subtle narrative and emotional depth. The screening provided a thoughtful context for the writing session that followed. After the screening, members participated in a monologue writing activity, where everyone composed a monologue based on the film's themes or personal reflections. This was followed by a sharing session, during which the members performed their monologues in front of their peers. The exercise encouraged confidence, empathy, and constructive engagement. The session concluded with the launch of Petrichor's annual newsletter, which documented the society's achievements, activities, and highlights from the academic year.

OUTCOMES	The Monologue Writing Session offered members a platform for introspection and creative articulation. The annual newsletter of Petrichor was also launched. As the final event of the academic session, it provided a thoughtful closure to the year's activities.
