BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY

TOPIC/SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	Science Extempore Competition on the occasion of National Science Day, based on the theme of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.
OBJECTIVES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To commemorate National Science Day and promote scientific awareness among students. • To provide a platform for students to present and discuss contemporary scientific and environmental issues. • To encourage scientific communication, critical thinking, and interdisciplinary learning among undergraduate students. • To highlight the importance of biological sciences in addressing global challenges such as food security, climate change, pesticide impacts, and public health concerns. • To foster curiosity and enthusiasm for science through student-led presentations and discussions.
METHODOLOGY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Science Day celebration was organized as an interactive academic session featuring student presentations and an SDG Extempore Competition. Students delivered short presentations on contemporary scientific themes related to environmental sustainability, biotechnology, climate change, pesticide impacts, and public health awareness. • As part of the celebration, an SDG Extempore Competition was also conducted to encourage participants to articulate their ideas on topics related to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Participants were given a limited time to prepare and present their thoughts, promoting spontaneity, critical thinking, and effective scientific communication. • The activity provided a platform for students to engage in meaningful discussions, share perspectives, and enhance their understanding of the role of science in addressing global challenges.
OUTCOMES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The activity enhanced students' awareness of contemporary scientific, environmental, and public health challenges. • It encouraged the development of scientific communication, analytical thinking, and presentation skills among students. • The session fostered active student participation and interdisciplinary understanding of biological sciences and sustainability issues. • In the SDG Extempore Competition conducted as part of the Science Day celebrations, Mohd. Tahoor from B.Sc. (Hons.) Biological Sciences, 3rd year, secured the 1st position, followed by Ayushi Mishra from B.Sc. (Hons.) Chemistry, 2nd year, who secured the 2nd position, while the competition was adjudicated by Prateeksha Shukla from B.Sc. (Hons.) Mathematics, 2nd year.

ACTIVITY REPORT

The Department of Biological Sciences, Sri Venkateswara College, celebrated Science Day on 27th February 2026 with an SDG Extempore Competition organized under the aegis of Chrysalis, the Biological Sciences Society. The event fostered scientific curiosity and provided a platform for discussions on contemporary scientific and environmental issues.

The presentations covered diverse and relevant themes. The first focused on food security and equitable resource distribution, highlighting global challenges of hunger and malnutrition while emphasizing responsible resource use, inspired by Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy of equitable consumption. The second addressed the role of biotechnology in achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), demonstrating its contributions to agricultural productivity, crop disease resistance, and sustainable farming. Climate change was discussed as a major environmental and biological crisis, with emphasis on its impact on ecosystems, biodiversity, human health, and livelihoods. Another presentation examined the environmental impact of pesticide use, noting its effects on soil, water, and non-target organisms, and stressing sustainable pest management. The final presentation explored public health beyond hospitals, drawing lessons from the COVID-19 pandemic and highlighting the importance of awareness, preventive measures, sanitation, vaccination, and community participation.

In the SDG Extempore Competition, Mohd. Tahoor (B.Sc. Hons. Biological Sciences, 3rd year) secured first position and was awarded a cash prize of ₹1000 along with a certificate. Ayushi Mishra (B.Sc. Hons. Chemistry, 2nd year) secured second position and received ₹700 along with a certificate. The competition was adjudicated by Prateeksha Shukla (B.Sc. Hons. Mathematics, 2nd year), Deepanshu Vasuja (B.Sc. Hons. Biosciences, 2nd year), and Meera Tandon (B.Sc. Hons. Biosciences, 2nd year).

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty, encouraging meaningful discussions on the role of science in addressing real-world challenges and highlighting the importance of interdisciplinary thinking.
