The training programme aimed at making the faculty members aware about the mechanisms and modalities of implementation of the fourth-year research component under the NEP. Since it is the first time that the fourth year has come under the UGCF-NEP, the criterion VI of the IQAC decided to train the faculty members for smooth transition. Dr. Arpita Kaul for the Department of Commerce attended a training at the University of Delhi. She was the resource person and trained all the members of the Subject Research committee of the college to ensure that all the faculty members are aware of the guidelines framed by the University of Delhi. The program was successful and several doubts of the participants were cleared.
