EVENT REPORT

The Department of Sociology, Sri Venkateswara College held its Department Orientation on the 29th of August, 2026 from 09:30 AM to officially welcome the newly enrolled first-year students to the course.

The Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Niharika Jaiswal, initiated the event through a deeply insightful presentation introducing the department and its undertakings. She also introduced the department faculty and informed the students about the discipline of Sociology and the opportunities it offers. A broad overview of the various activities conducted by the department, such as the annual lecture, alumni seminar, annual fest, department magazine, etc. was also given. The discussion was supplemented by discussing the practical knowledge of the coursework structure and explaining the examination, assessment and marking scheme. Prof. Nabanipa Bhattacharjee, Dr Satheesh Permulla and Dr Urmi Bhattacharyya enriched the event with their inspiring words to the students.

Last but not least, the students interacted with their seniors from the second and third year to understand their experience in the department. The orientation programme helped first-year students gain the necessary information to successfully initiate their college journey as students of the Department of Sociology.
