EVENT REPORT

Name of the Event: Teacher's Day Celebration

Date: 16th September, 2026

The Commerce Association organised a Teachers' Day celebration to express gratitude and appreciation towards the faculty members for their constant guidance, support, and encouragement. The celebration began with a warm welcome to all the teachers, followed by addresses by the respected Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Vinod Kumar Sir, and Convenor, Dr. Shruti Mathur Ma'am.

The event then moved on to a series of fun and engaging games planned especially for the teachers, creating a lively and interactive atmosphere. The activities encouraged enthusiastic participation from the faculty members and added a light-hearted element to the celebration. The celebration further included the distribution of gifts as a small token of appreciation, allowing the students to express their gratitude for the teachers' constant efforts, patience, and mentorship.

The celebration continued with a cake-cutting ceremony, bringing everyone together to mark the occasion on a cheerful note. This was followed by refreshments, allowing the teachers and students to interact informally and enjoy some quality time together beyond the usual classroom setting. The warm and engaging atmosphere added to the spirit of the celebration and made the occasion more memorable for everyone present.

The celebration concluded on a cheerful note as teachers and students came together to capture a few memorable moments. The warmth and enthusiasm shared throughout the event made the celebration a pleasant and memorable experience for everyone present.

The celebration provided a meaningful opportunity for students to acknowledge the invaluable role of their teachers and express their appreciation through the various activities organised throughout the event. It fostered a sense of camaraderie between the faculty and students, while creating a warm and memorable environment to celebrate the dedication, guidance, and contribution of the teachers.
